שיחה

A discussion on stories that “once were”

Following this book, you could also raise memories and tell stories that “once were” – a childhood story of yours, parents, or one told by Grandma or Grandpa about the old days.

שמע

Listening to the story

You could listen to the story together or separately; all you have to do is scan the QR code and... let the magic begin!

Suitable for families of Olim too.

Look how we have grown!

The tree grew, as did Rebecca. And how about you? Perhaps you would enjoy watching videos and looking at photographs to see how both children and parents have grown and changed. You could even discuss the kinds of actions that your children were able or unable to do in the past.

בשול

Orange sponge cake

Would you like to bake a cake? All you need are two eggs, one third of a cup of sugar, one third of a cup of oil, half a cup of fresh orange juice, a cup of flour (or substitute) and one teaspoon of baking powder. You could also add the grated zest of half an orange.

Mix all the ingredients in order and place in an oven preheated to 180 degrees Celsius.
Bon Appetit!
